When you get your registration form, consider taking the team challenge and teaming up with four other individuals to do the Fun Walk. Listen to KTIS 98.5 AM and WWTC 1280 AM Radio for our ads.

The Scholarship Trust Fund was formed in 1975 to provide financial aid to individuals who are deaf and hard of hearing by providing assistance in obtaining mechanical devices, treatment or specialized education such as speech classes, note takers, interpreters, etc., and in other areas to help the deaf and hard of hearing.

The Trust is supported by gifts and contributions, and from the income earned on investments of Trust funds. All contributions to the Trust are tax deductible, as defined under the Internal Revenue Code for 501(c)(3) organizations. If you just wish to make a contribution to the Trust Fund please contact Dave Grossklaus by visiting our division website www.TPAMN.org.

Over $2 million dollars has been distributed to more than 5,000 recipients and more than 99% of the income earned on investments and donations has been awarded to recipients through the Trust since inception.
